

Attention: High School Juniors

Win a FREE TRIP to Washington, D.C.

An all-expense-paid trip to Washington, D.C. will be awarded this June to FIVE young people from the Nolin Rural Electric Cooperative Corporation service area. These students will spend a week touring Gettysburg, the Smithsonian Institution, Arlington National Cemetery, the FBI Building, the National Zoo, Library of Congress, U.S. Capitol, The White House, the Kennedy Center, plus a visit with Kentucky's congressional delegation.

RULES FOR ENTERING THE YOUTH TOUR CONTEST

1. High school juniors between the ages of 16 and 18, whose primary residence is with a parent or guardian that is a member of Nolin RECC are eligible. Children and grandchildren of employees or directors are not eligible.
2. A completed application must be returned to Nolin RECC no later than February 8, 2019.
3. All contestants will be required to come to the Nolin RECC Elizabethtown office for a personal interview and brief quiz on cooperatives.
4. Each contestant will be asked to write a 500 word or less essay on "My Life Without Electricity." Essays are due at the time of the interview.

To enter the Youth Tour Contest, complete an application (available at www.nolinrecc.com or through your guidance counselor) and return it to: Youth Tour, Nolin RECC 411 Ring Road, Elizabethtown, KY 42701-6767 or email to sfellows@nolinrecc.com. Upon receipt of your application we will send you a packet containing a study guide for the short quiz and information on the essay "My Life Without Electricity." Personal interviews will be held in February or March with each applicant. A judging committee will select five winners and two alternates. Winners will be notified in early May.
